Product variant(s) not Showing the Default or Sale price

Last Modified on 30/09/2020 11:56 am AEST

If you are reading this guide you are probably unsure why one of your product variant(s) is showing the default price or a different instead of your sale price.

When you enter a default price for the "umbrella" product, normally all of the variants will be assigned this price automatically if you leave the price for the variants as blank.

Pricing

Default Price * (including tax) $ 89.99	Default Price
Tax Class ? Default Tax Class	Tax Provider Tax Code ? IMPERIAL-LUXURY-TAX-01
▼ Hide Advanced Pricing
Cost $ 0	MSRP $ 0
Sale Price $ 70.00	Sale Price

Bulk Pricing

BUT IF you manually add a price to one or more of the variants further down, the default OR sale price won't be inherited and will cause different prices to be reflected on the front end when these options are selected.
