Discounts | Overview

Last Modified on 13/02/2024 1:52 pm AEDT

GameDay's Discounts feature provides the ability to configure your registration process to automatically apply a percentage or amount-based discount based on the product selected by registrants, with the flexibility to apply them to one, multiple, or all of the products within your database. You can also automatically trigger the discount to be active within a certain period of time.

Discounts can be created as:

- Standard Single Quantity Discounts: Apply to one selected quantity of the product or group of products to which it is assigned.
- Standard Multiple Quantity Discounts: Allow different amounts to be discounted based on the quantity of products purchased.
- Bundle Discounts: Allow specific amounts to be discounted based on the number of members being registered in a single registration

To access the Discounts feature, click PROMOTIONS in the left-hand menu:

Page Actions

On the Discounts List, you can apply various other actions and display settings, including:

The screenshot shows the 'Promotions' page with two tabs: 'Discounts' (marked 'NEW') and 'Promo Codes' (marked 'NEW'). Below the tabs is a toolbar with a 'Create New Discount' button (1), a status filter dropdown set to 'Active' (2), a discount type filter dropdown set to 'All Discount Types' (3), a search input field with a magnifying glass icon and placeholder text 'Type to search' (4), and a settings gear icon (5). Below the toolbar is a table with columns: 'Discount Name', 'Discount Type', 'Available From', 'Available To', 'Status', and 'Action(s)'. The table contains two rows of data. The first row is '20% off May' (Standard, 1 May 2023 (AEST) to 31 May 2023 (AEST), Active) with an 'Edit' button (6) in the 'Action(s)' column. The second row is 'Family Discounts' (Bundle, 1 June 2022 (AEST) to 30 November 2023 (AEDT), Active) with an 'Edit' button in the 'Action(s)' column.

1. Create New Discount: Create a new discount from scratch.

2. Status Filter: Filter discounts by Draft, Active, Inactive, Scheduled, or Expired status.

3. Discount Type Filter: Filter discounts by Discount Type.

4. Search Function: Search for discounts by name.

5. List Table Settings: Define which fields are displayed in the columns of the list table.

6. Edit Discount: Edit any of the details of a specific discount.
